

Name:

Film Title and year of release:

Director:

Subject:

Documentary worksheet

In a sentence or two, but no more than a paragraph answer any four of the following about the film.

(Subject) What is the subject and story of the film?

(Argument) If the film was meant to persuade, did you find its argument and evidence compelling and effective?

(Technique) What are three techniques in the film that you found particularly interesting or effective?

(Scene) What three scenes did you find most interesting and why?

(Authority) How did the film maker demonstrate their authority on the subject?

(Research) Name at least five facts you learned from the film and how they lend themselves to a larger argument.

(Emotion) Name at least three scenes meant to evoke emotion. Describe one in detail about how it worked.

(Technique) Describe in detail one particular technique used by the film maker that you would like to include in your documentary.

Complete worksheets will be no more than one-page. You must use single-spacing, a 12-point font, and 1"-margins.